

Hands On for Table Calculation

Exercise- 1

- Create a Pie chart to show % of Items that were shipped via Different Ship Mode

Exercise- 2

- Which month did the company cross 50% of the total Sales?

Exercise – 3

- Arrange the Sub categories according to their rank in Sales.
- Analyze which sub Category has had a best growth over time.

Exercise- 4

- Show the Yearly growth in Sales for different Regions.
- Use a highlighter to show the change.

Exercise- 5

- Show the Compound Growth Rate of the Sub Categories for different Quarters.

Exercise- 6

- Analyze the Top N Sub Categories that are being sold in each Region (Sales)
- Rank with a Slider to choose top n.

Exercise - 7

- Create a Waterfall Chart to analyze the Profit of the various Sub Categories we are dealing with.

Exercise- 8

- Analyze the Quantity shipped by Various Ship Modes across multiple Months.
- Approach : Bump Chart

Exercise- 9

- Analyze the Min/ Max Sales of the various Segments across month.
- When was the min and the max Sales of each of the Segments achieved.

Exercise- 10

- Analyze the Sales of various Segments across the Months.
- Also Analyze the % difference in Sales from the Previous Month.

Exercise- 11

- Analyze the contribution of each Category across various Region.
- Approach: Waffle Chart

